Association for Women in Technology Presents Getting "LinkedIn" Workshop

IRVINE, Calif., May 6th 2009 — The Association for Women in Technology (AWT), the county's only not-for-profit supporter of women in all fields of technology and science, announced their expanded Professional Development/Enrichment Program for 2009! With the growing demands of business, and the level of competency and the need for dedicated professionals continues to increase, this program provides opportunities for expanding your professional network, learning and knowledge, building confidence and personal development. AWT's Professional Development/Enrichment program consists of Workshops, Mentorship, Speaker series, and Technology Forums to provide educational opportunities. The second event will feature Nick Chavis discussing the benefits of using LinkedIn for Job Search and Career Management. He will share how to use LinkedIn to be more effective in your daily work and show how to using it effectively may open doors to opportunities using the professional relationships you already may have. Whether conducting a current job search, or for ongoing career management and personal branding, LinkedIn is a tool that can help everyone network more effectively and efficiently.
